

BUILDING A SINO-INDONESIA COMMUNITY WITH A SHARED FUTURE

Chinese President Xi Jinping and Indonesian President Joko Widodo reached a series of important common understandings on bilateral relations and on international and regional issues of mutual interest at the end of last month in Beijing. The two sides have decided to fulfill the responsibilities of major developing countries, follow true multilateralism, uphold open regionalism, and contribute Oriental wisdom and Asia's input to the world peace.

REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA

Official Language Indonesian

Total Area 1.9 million sq km
15th in the world

Population 270 million in 2021
4th in the world

Ethnic Groups >300
45% Javanese

GDP US$1.2 trillion in 2021
16th in the world
The only country in Southeast Asia with an economy exceeding US$1 trillion

Exports & Imports US$0.43 trillion in 2021

PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

Official Language Chinese

Total Area 9.6 million sq km
3rd in the world

Population 1.4 billion in 2021
1st in the world

Ethnic Group 56
>90% Han

GDP US$17.7 trillion in 2021
2nd in the world

Exports & Imports US$6.05 trillion in 2021

APR 25
2005

China and Indonesia signed a joint declaration on the establishment of a strategic partnership in Jakarta.

October
2013

Chinese President Xi Jinping proposed for the first time in Indonesia to jointly build the "21st Century Maritime Silk Road". The bilateral relationship between China and Indonesia was upgraded to a comprehensive strategic partnership.

November
2018

The People's Bank of China and Bank Indonesia renewed the bi-lateral currency swap agreement, aiming to facilitate trade and investment between the two countries and maintain financial market stability.