

The breathtaking skyline of Lujiazui

Check in at must-see sites

Pudong not only boasts the most beautiful skyline in the city, but also the largest single-building library in China, Disney Resort, an ocean park and the world's largest planetarium.

Breathtaking skyline (Oriental Pearl TV Tower, Shanghai Tower, Jin Mao Tower, Shanghai World Financial Center) — Shanghai Ocean Aquarium — Shanghai Library (East Hall) — Pudong Library — Shanghai Disney Resort — Shanghai Wild Animal Park — Haichang Ocean Park — Shanghai Astronomy Museum

Zhangjiang Science Hall — Zheng Feng

Explore science city

As a major site to fulfill Shanghai's ambition to be a science and technology innovation center, Pudong is home to the biggest and most advanced scientific facilities built in the city.

Shanghai Science and Technology Museum — Robot Valley — Zhangjiang Science Hall — Aisland Experience Center — Jinqiao 5G Industry Exhibition Center — Jinqiao Intelligent Connected Vehicle Test Demonstration Zone

Taikoo Li Qiantan

Experience global fashion

Enjoy global fashion in Pudong, where there is no lack of trendy shops, debut brands and the best runway shows.

Taikoo Li Qiantan — Mercedes-Benz Arena — IFC — MIFA 1862 — Century Link Mall — Bicester Shanghai Village — Florentia Village

Appreciate the charm of Shanghai style

The 22-kilometer east bank of the Huangpu River gathers many iconic landmarks in the Pudong New Area.

Shanghai Tower — Oriental Pearl TV Tower — Museum of Art Pudong — Wangjiang Post — Shanghai Expo Culture Park — Shanghai Oriental Sports Center

Intangible cultural heritage of ancient towns

In Pudong, the old streets seem to be the veins of a city with a history of hundreds of years. In a vivid practice of the high-quality integrated development of the Yangtze River Delta region, Pudong plays its part in the application for world cultural heritage of the ancient watertowns in areas to the south of the lower reaches of Yangtze River.

Gaoqiao Old Street — Neishidi — Sanlintang Old Street — Fu Lei's Former Residence — Xinchang Ancient Town