

■ 'Dune: Part Two'

Release date: March 8

Based on Frank Herbert's futuristic sci-fi novel where humans live on many different planets, the adventure epic film centers on Paul Atreides' hunger for revenge against the clan who destroyed his family, and his partnership with Chani and the Fremen to take back their land.

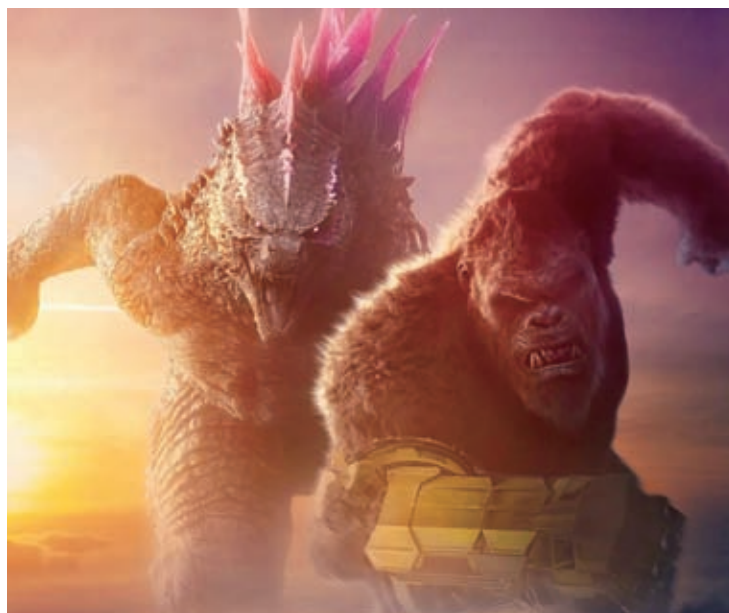

The first part of "Dune" was a critical and financial success in 2021, earning more than US$400 million worldwide. Starring Timothée Chalamet and Zendaya, the sequel also has an IMAX version to present stunning visuals of its gripping scenes.

■ 'Remember Me'

Release date: March 15

Starring Kara Wai and Liu Haocun, this drama revolves around the reunion of a kind-hearted woman and her granddaughter who accidentally got lost 12 years earlier. The two go from being strangers to cuddling each other. During their time together, their secrets are gradually revealed. In the end, the grandmother saves the granddaughter, who had no hope for life.

■ 'Godzilla x Kong: The New Empire'

Release date: March 29

The sci-fi adventure film revolves around the epic battle and final cooperation of the two ancient titans, Godzilla and Kong, after humans uncover their intertwined origins and connection to Skull Island's mysteries.

A sequel to the 2021 film "Godzilla vs. Kong," the film also presents an IMAX version to depict the gigantic creatures, their origins and the mysteries of Skull Island on the screen.

■ 'Kung Fu Panda 4'

Release date: March 22

The animated feature film is the latest installment of the "Kung Fu Panda" franchise. The film follows Po's adventure in a big city in ancient China to find and train a new Dragon Warrior, after he becomes the spiritual leader of the Valley of Peace. However, a wicked sorceress plans to re-summon all the master villains whom Po has to defeat.

Directed by Mike Mitchell, the film is a story about courage, friendship and growth as Po will face unprecedented difficulties and tests. The film also incorporates many Chinese elements, from clothing, architecture to food, showcasing the unique charm of Chinese culture.

■ 'Anatomy of a Fall'

Release date: March 29

The French courtroom drama is the 2023 winner of the Palme d'Or at the Cannes Film Festival. The film, which explores the hidden pain in marital relationships, has also garnered five nominations for the 2024 Academy Awards.

The film, written and directed by Justine Triet, tells the story of a woman in a small village who is suspected of murder after her husband's death. During the investigation, the couple's life and relationship are put on trial and their son becomes the main witness.